Days of Our Lives

A child it seems living in dreams
plays joyfully.
Living life and becoming wise
in simplicity.

A new year is come and changes some
the mind is freed.
You might find to be yourself
is all you need.

The months go by and it's hard to try to not grow old.
The story within is hard to see and seldom told.

The days of our lives
we sometimes revive with memory.
The things we learn from pain and joy
help us to see.

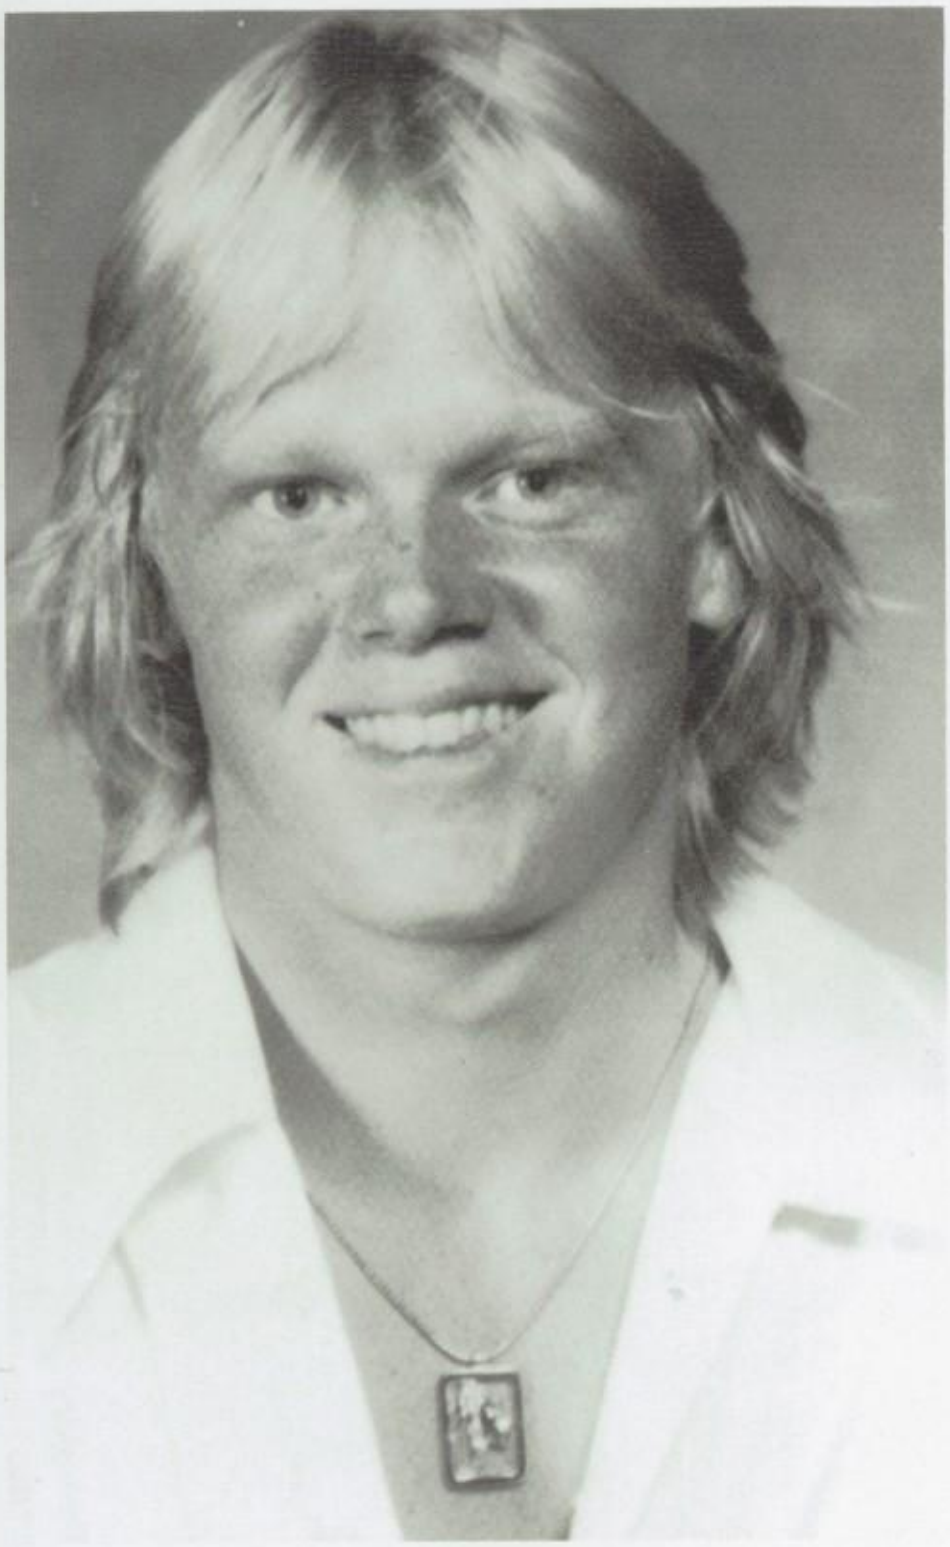
MEMORY

IN MEMORY OF . . .



RIK ALTMEIER
1964-1982

Sorrow:
It hurts deep down inside.
One feels diminished,
Less than he has been.
Empty,
Bereft —
Forlorn and incomplete.
Sorrow is a painful word
But if someone is there
To share the feeling
It becomes endurable
And in the scheme of things
A time of being
That includes great emotion
And thus a time of closeness,
Growing and becoming someone more
Than we have been before.

Elisabeth Kübler Ross

One Life to Live

I sat with the stars on the hill of life
And looked at the world below.
I ran with the winds where winds begin
And followed them where they blow.

I lay by the sea on the beaten rock
And rode on the farthest wave,
I watched by a child on its night of birth
And followed it to its grave.

And love in the still of the star-flecked night,
When earth was all strewn with gold,
Has lifted my heart like the chords of song
Oft sung in the worlds of old.

And though I have not understood all this,
Made up of a laugh and a wail,
I think that the God of the world knows all,
And some day will tell the tale.

YEARS

The Japanese educators had many questions which were answered in the library by Mr. Foltz.

below: Mr. Boblitt passes out literature about our school.

JAPANESE EDUCATORS IMPRESSED

Japanese educator takes notes on the workings of our school system.

Amy Sobczak enjoys meeting the Japanese educators.

REBELLION October 30, 1981 — Japanese educators visited Bowsher Oct. 1 and 2 during a world-wide tour of schools.

Their purpose was to discover how various nations conduct their education, with the goal of revising and improving the Japanese system after their return home.

The 16 men chosen for the curriculum provisions team were hand-picked by the Japanese government for the study.

The group which visited Bowsher also went to Rogers in Toledo. These were the only stops made in the United States. The other stops included two in Europe, Germany and Belgium.

Out of all the other cities in the U.S., Toledo was chosen as the American stop because of its schools' activity in international affairs.

Tim Tucker is taken by surprise by the Apogee photographer.

Mr. Foltz through the interpreter speaks to the educators about our school.

" A LOT OF HASSLE FOR A LITTLE TASSLE"

EDITOR: OK, graduates! What comes to mind when you think of graduation?
SENIORS: Freedom at last.
The end.
The beginning.
Lonliness.
Sadness.
Couldn't come soon enough.
A hot robe.
A lot of hassle.
Trying to remember to order invitations, address and mail them all, get measured for caps and gowns, go to rehearsal and all that stuff.
I think of long, boring speakers.
I think of tripping up the steps on my way to receive my diploma.
How about forgetting the school's loyalty song?
I think of week long parties with relatives, friends, and hangovers.
It's the last time I get to play in the band.
Yeah, but that's a hassle, too. Getting up from your seat and moving to your place with the band, then getting back to your place, so you'll be in the right place for your diploma.
I just keephthinking about that tassle. Is it suppose to go on the left of the right? And when do we change sides? Just before we get our diploma or right afterwards? Or do we wait and do it together as a class? Oh, I can see that tassle just winding up right in the middle of my face. It'll probably block my vision and cause me to stumble.
I think it's going to be said when it's all over and we've turned in our caps and gowns and there's nothing left.
Except the tassle. We get to keep the tassle.
Yeah, but that's alot of hassle for a little tassle.
EDITOR: I think you've got it. "A lot of hassle for a little tassle."

E.L. BOWSHER'S 7th ANNUAL

Julie Olwick, Tony Tucker and Tracy Ferguson display the French Club's exhibit.

John Barnes shows us the latest fashion. (Latin Club)

Bowsher's 7th Annual Foreign Language Festival was held on February 18th in the Bowsher cafeteria. The festival featured many fine talent acts and a selection of international foods. Many students were involved in the preparation of this affair. Each of the four languages set up displays, and prepared for the festival. Some of the foods in the international buffet were, Apple Streudel, Bratwurst, Petit' Napoleons, Caesar's salad, and Tacos. The German Club entertained the crowd with dancing, while the Spanish, German and Latin Clubs did so with humorous skits. The festival was a success to all who attended and worked on it.

Tomm Sondergeld, Mike Lowry and Fred Goff dance their way into a picture. (German Club)

Mrs. Stevens takes a break from the festivities to give us a smile.

THE GOLDEN CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is a golden chain,
The links are friends so dear,
And like a rare and precious jewel
Its treasured more each year . . .
Its clasped together firmly
With a love thats deep and true,
And its rich with happy memories
And fond recollections, too . . .

Time can't destroy its beauty
For, as long as memory lives,
Years can't erase the pleasure
That the joy of friendship gives . . .
For friendship is a priceless gift
That can't be bought or sold,
But to have an understanding friend
Is worth far more than gold . . .
And the Golden Chain of Friendship
Is a strong and blessed tie
Binding kindred hearts together
As the years go passing by.

Could this be true LOVE? (Doug Edwards and Mark Kelley)

Tamara Tipton and Keith Burmeister strike a pose for the photographer.

Amy Lambert and Ken Kreig express the true emotions of Prom — "The Best of Times".

Cindy and Jeff take a rest after the excitement of the evening.

When Prom season rolled around last year at E.L. Bowsher High School, girls were seen stalking the guys into a state of intimidation. Who to ask, and whose date to accept?, these questions and more went through the minds of many whose aspirations included dancing the night away in the Great Hall of the Masonic Temple on May 16.

Students that attended the Prom enjoyed dancing to the music of the Tamaron Show Band. The Theme of last year's prom was "The Best of Times".

A feeling of mixed emotions comes over students at Bowsher around Prom time. Most Juniors anxiously await their first Prom while most Seniors reminisce about last year's prom and show signs of melancholy as they approach what will be their last high school dance.

When prom night finally arrives, emotions are running high. Whether you are dreading the whole night or ecstatic over your dream boat, there is no doubt that the night will be memorable. This was definitely the case for prom king and queen candidates: Beth Moriarty, Todd Hehl, Carole Jacobs, Todd Achor, Queen Cindy Brodbeck, King Jeff Stedwill, Karen Drahiem, Mike Jewell, Molly Stephens and Rob Styacich.

Paul Mackey and date enjoy a quiet moment alone.

Woody Allen's comedy, "Play it again, Sam" which was Bowsher's Junior-Senior Class Play was presented February 25, 26 and 27th in our auditorium.

Senior, Tim Tucker plays the lead role as Alan Felix, a young man who idolizes Humphery Bogart. The story revolves around Alan's dreams to be a success with women and as tough as his idol.

The play was advised by faculty members Mrs. Cheryl Waters and Mrs. Mary Stahl. The student coordinator was senior Todd Frendt and director was Matt Swiergosz.

The heads of the family

This year Rebelees marks the 20th anniversary of the annual student musical production. The 1982 Rebelees plot is set at summer camp for kids from grades six to twelve. The story will include a love interest, various talent acts, humor, music, and the contribution of approximately 100 students.

Mrs. Marcella Mackey and Mrs. Denise Onyia are the faculty advisors.

General Chairman: Valerie Whitehead and Student Director: Keith Burmeister.

Choreographers for the Rebelettes: Amy Sc czak and Marshel Houston.

Faculty Advisors: Mrs. Marcella Mackey and Mr Dennise Onyia.

WHATCHA DOING THIS WEEKEND!?!?

Forty-eight hours away from the corridors of Bowsher High School meant two days of leisure and relaxation for most students. "Hey man, whats going on this weekend" was a familiar question.

Parties large or small, wild or mellow were a main attraction. Mornings after the large , wild parties were perhaps harder to endure than mornings after the small, mellow ones yet nothing could have stopped a determined party-go-er.

Spending money was a favorite past time, and weekenders of Bowsher spent lots of it at movies, discos and naturally at department stores.

Student ingenuity was always a reliable resource and rarely failed in finding something for one to do on the weekend.

Varsity Football vs. Faculty

"Look guys, this ball is round", says Jack Sloan.

On January 7th, the seniors of Bowsher's Varsity Football team challenged the Rebel Faculty in an action-filled game of basketball. At the beginning of the game, it was hard to tell which play book the Varsity team was using — basketball or football.

As always the Varsity's defense was exceptionally strong however, these young athletes could not withstand the power of tradition. As a result, they lost the game 32-20 to the amazing Faculty.

Well Varsity, you let us down again — Stick to FOOTBALL!!!

The End

"What Form?!?!?" (Dave Neely)

Corbin Lewis goes for the extra point.

"Just a big baby!" (Kim Dunphy)

Keith Burmeister shoots for two.

Well, what can we say?

Oh, come on you guys. (Coach Lowe)

Foul Line Frolics

"Come to Freddy" (Coach Tashenberg)

Senior Greg Davis tramples Mr. Weinburg for the rebound.

"I think I should stick with football" (Jeff Parlette)

"Look its a bird, its a plane, its . . ."

Doesn't this say it all?

This year's Ski Club made only one ski trip to Crystal Mountain Ski Resort near Cadillac, Michigan for three days. Members of the club stayed at a nearby resort on Lake Platte. The group came back tired but without any serious injuries.

The Bowsher Skiers show us their style.

Actually, they're a group of professional skiers in disguise.

No Amy — we can't back up any further because of the cliff.

A CLOSER LOOK

This year seven students from Bowsher participated in the Presidential Classroom. They went to Washington D.C. for a week to get a first hand idea of how our government works and to experience life in the capital city.

The students were challenged to use their own initiative to make the most of their visit. They led a very busy schedule with daily seminars. Each student was also encouraged to speak with the speakers and to tour Washington and meet some of the many dignitaries.

Most of the participants in the Presidential Classroom felt that their stay in Washington was an enriching educational and personal experience. They achieved a better understanding of the way our government operates and many life long friendships were established.

PRESENTATION OF THE FLAGS

Commander Tierney and Mr. Foltz

On January 13th in Mr. James Foltz's office, the Toledo Police Post of the American Legion presented Bowsher with six American flags. Commander James Tierney presented these flags so that the students will learn more about their country's flag and what it stands for.

Do you remember when the grass was green and the sun would shine all day long? How about the times you could swim at the quarry in order to cool off and also to get a tan? Well — after this long hard winter of scraping windows, shoveling snow and falling on ice — you begin to wonder if spring will ever come again but . . . . Never fear, Spring will be here.

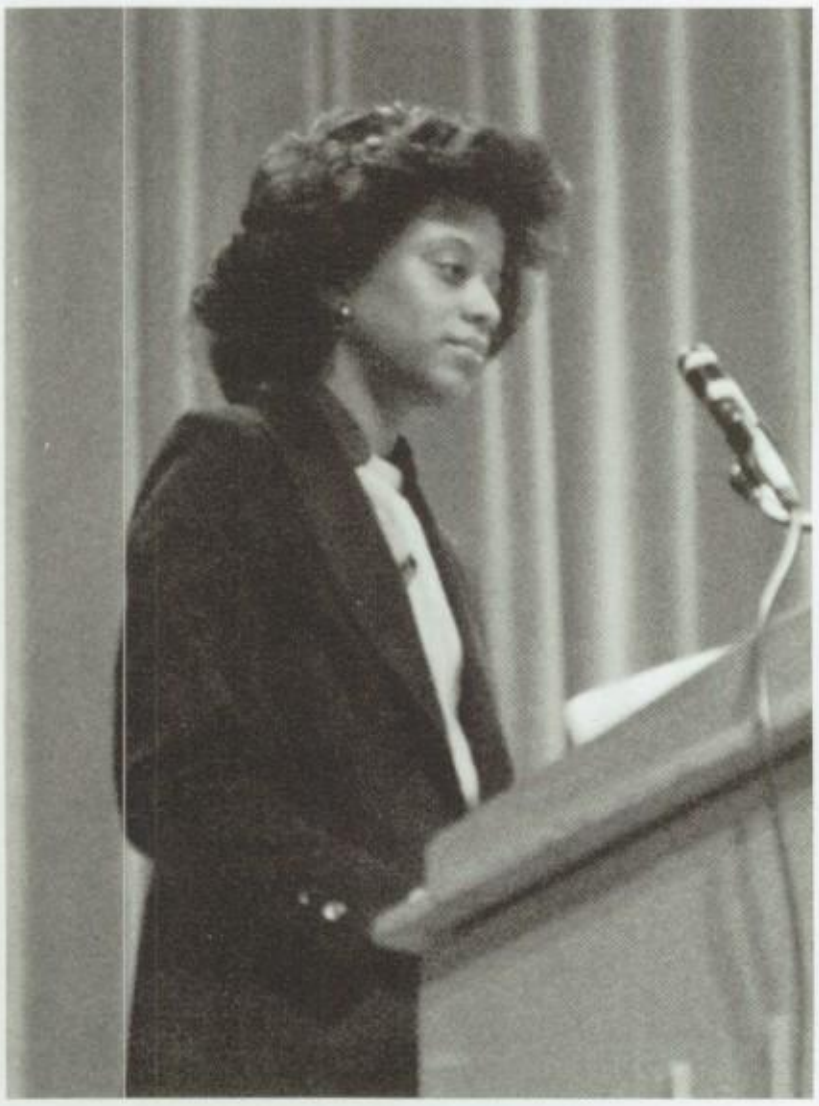
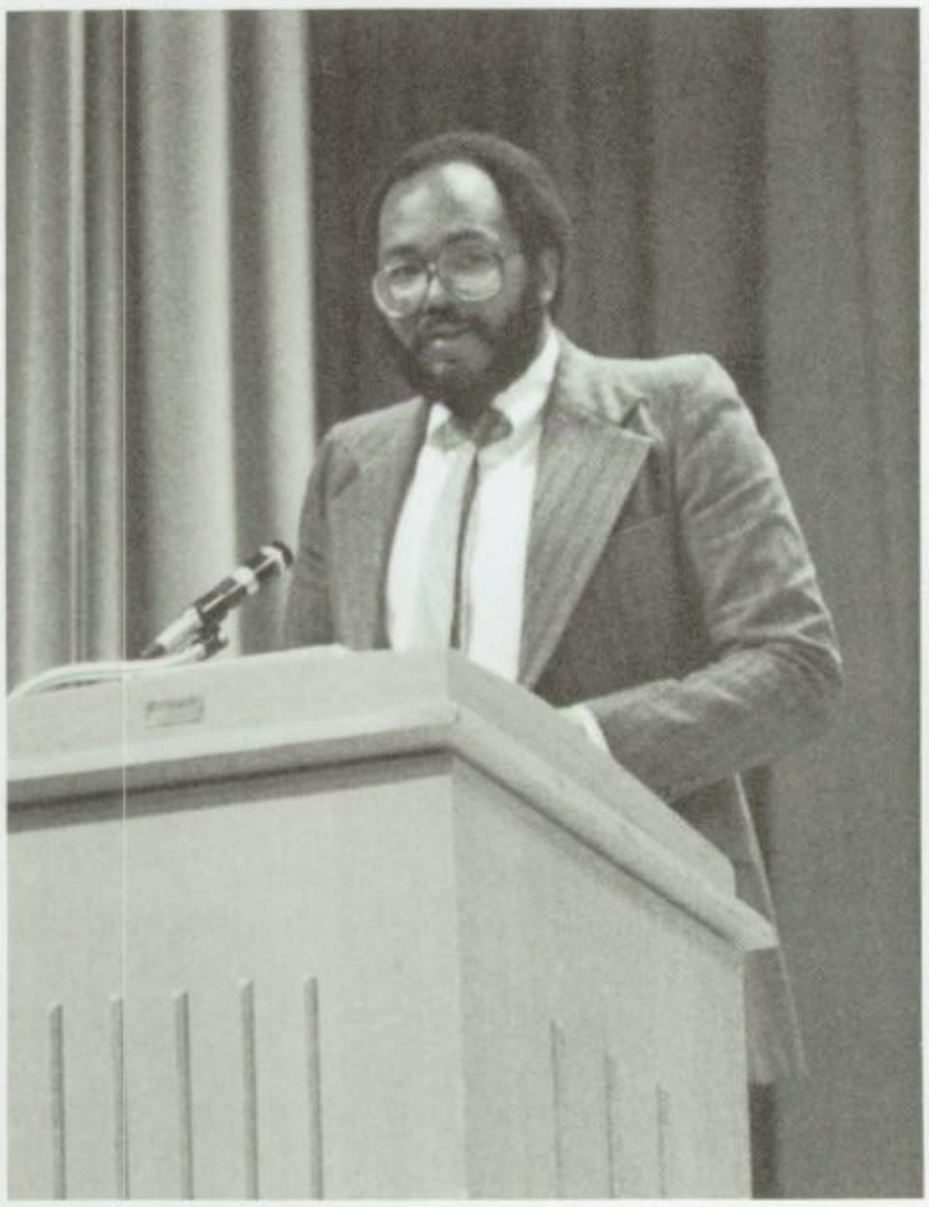
BLACK HISTORY MONTH



Valerie Whitehead, president of the Afro-American Club, host the Black History Program.

Members of the Afro-American Club really lift up their voices to sing.

The Afro-American Club held its first program for the student body on February 17, 1982. The program was designed to illustrate different aspects of Afro-American culture: the meaning of black history was explained by Mrs. Marie Bush: Dimilie Peters and Greg Davis interpreted poetry; Angela McClellan danced; and the Black Antheme "Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing" was performed by the Afro-American Club members. Mr. Larry Hines, director of Training and Economic Resources was the great speaker. Mrs. Marie Bush, Bowsher counselor, was presented with an award naming her one of America's outstanding young women.



Mr. Larry Hines was the guest speaker of the program.

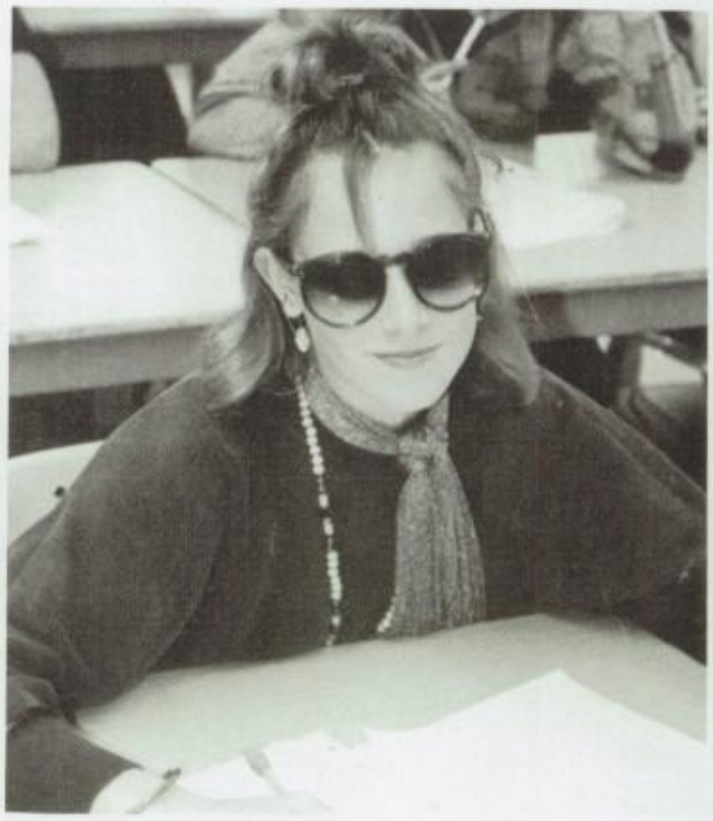
PUNK-PREP DAY

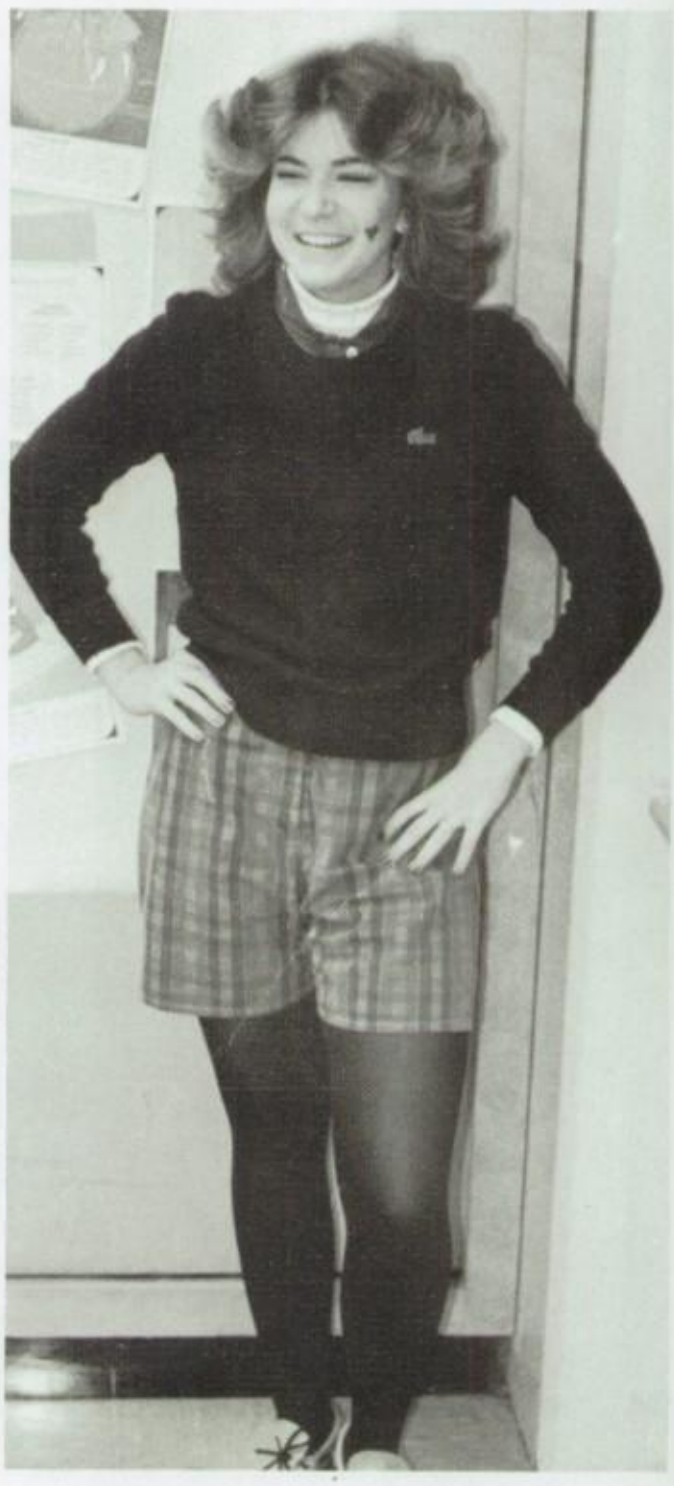
"Just try it, I dare you" says Amy Thompson and Julie Kirby.



Nice hair (Kelly Kravetshy)

Have you ever seen a Monday like this? Spirit Week started with a new addition this year: Punk-Prep Day. If you ever wanted to see a radical day at Bowsher, October 26th was unbelievable. Kelly Ammons won the Prep contest and Kim Emerson received first place for the best Punk. Many spirited students participated during the whole week, making this year's spirit week the Best Ever!

Jenny Fallon, Jana Ray and Holly Searl show how preppy they can get.



Karen Evans says "Here I am world, you dream girl."

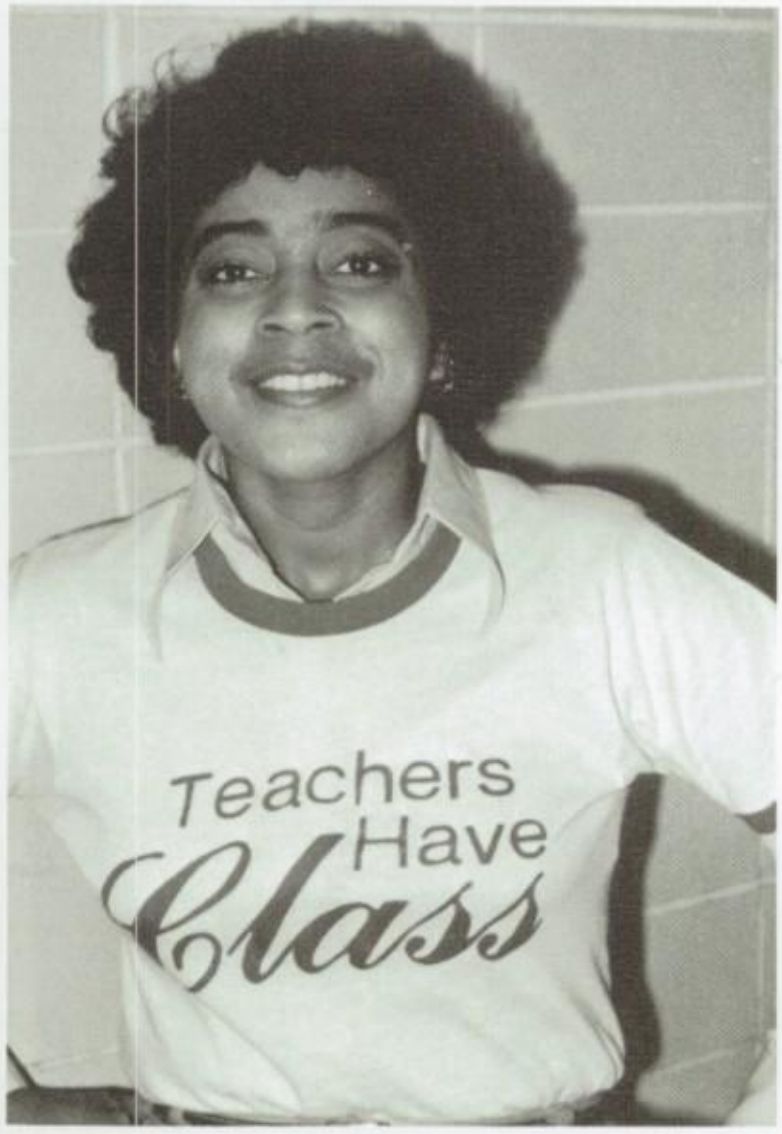
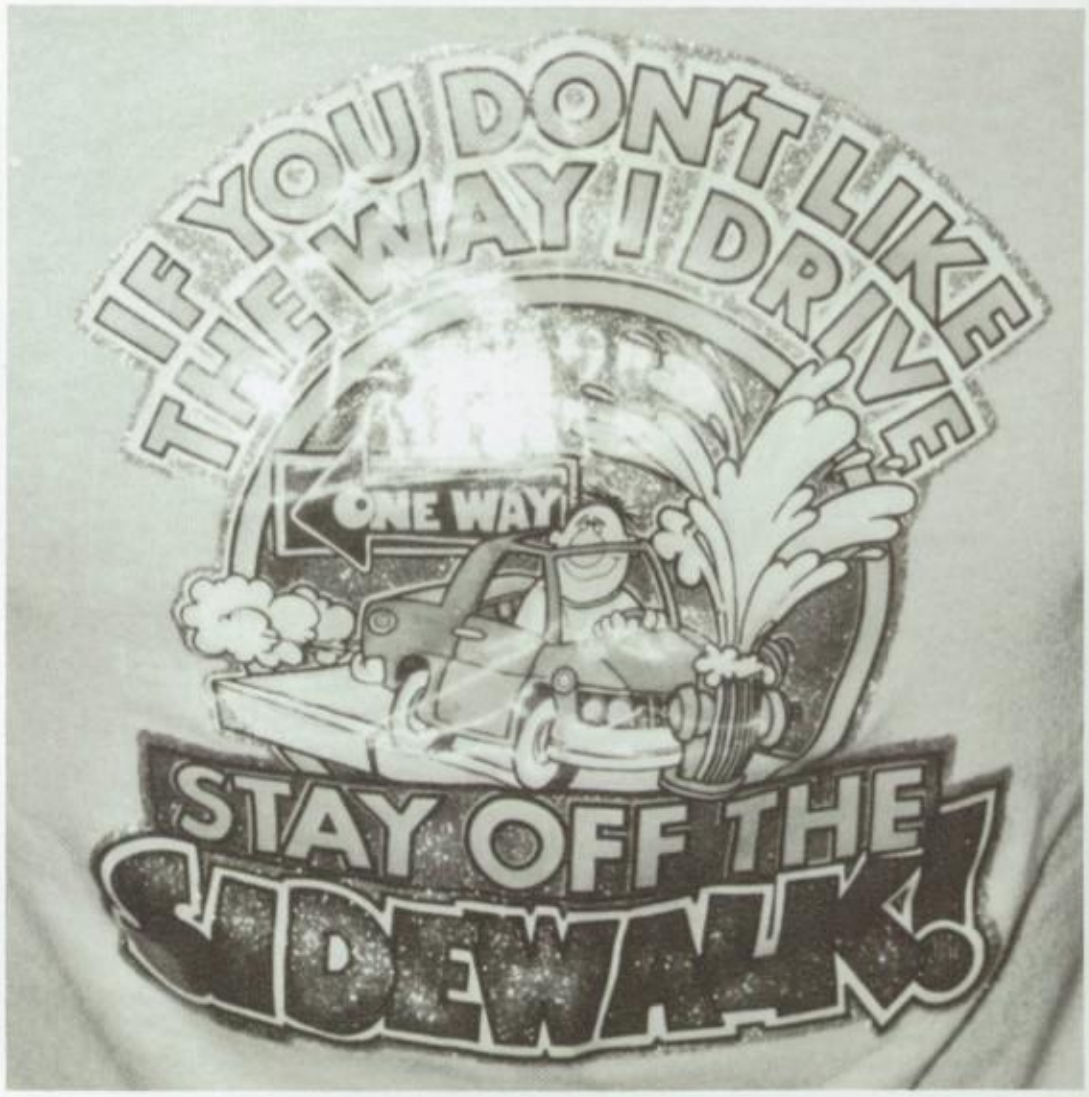
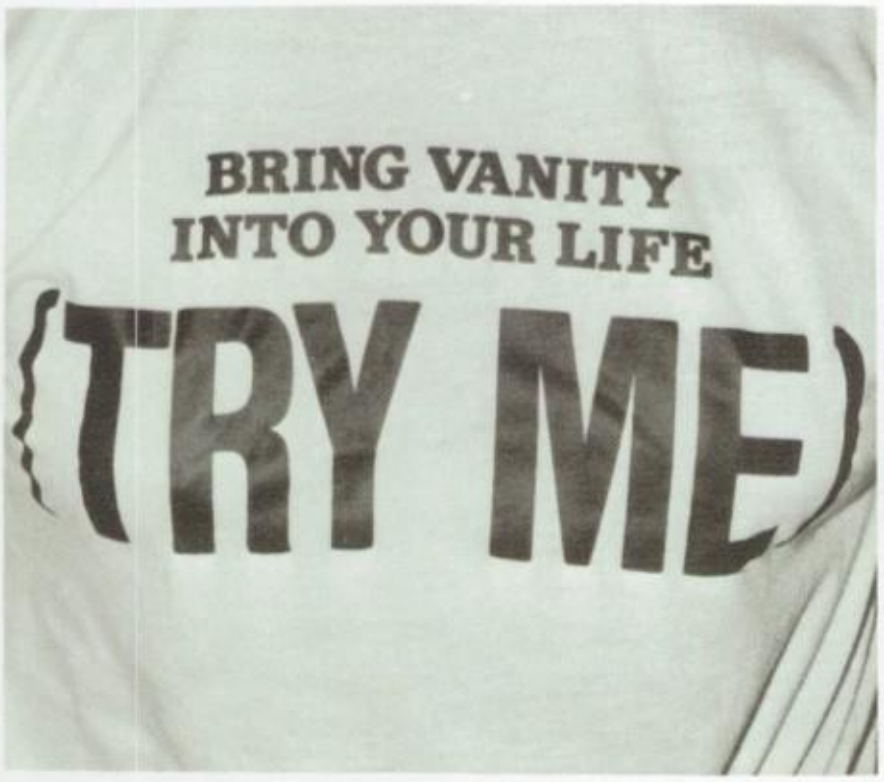
T-SHIRT DAY



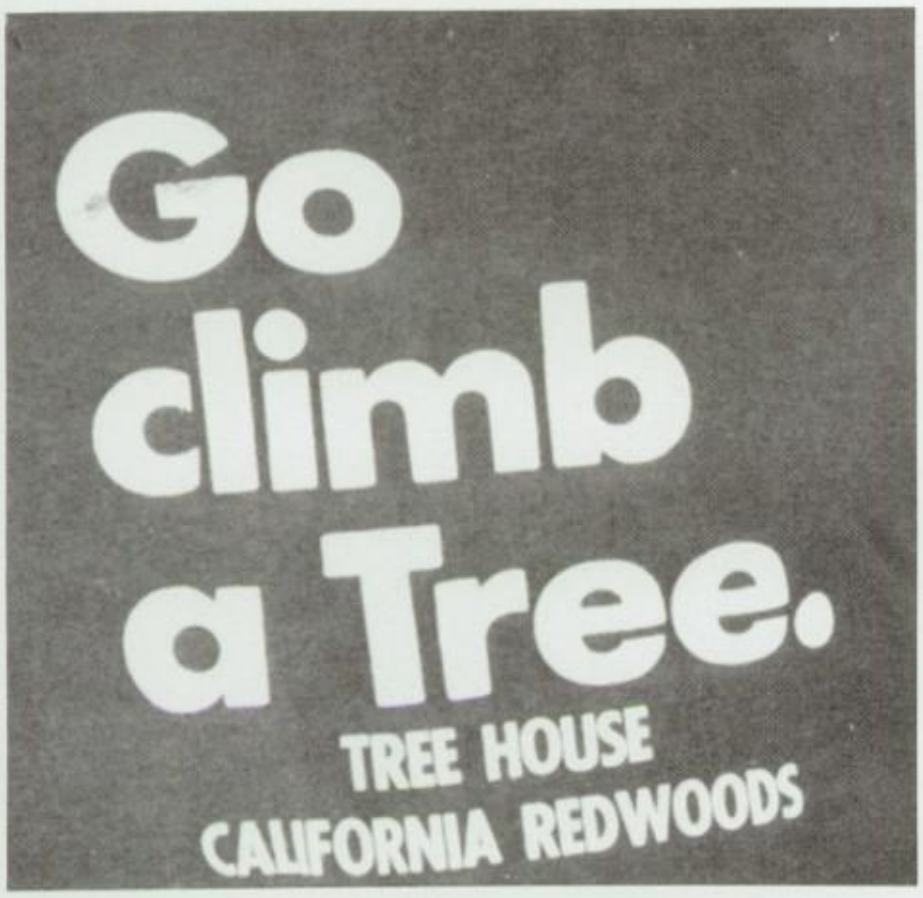
Mrs. Denise Onyia shows her class.

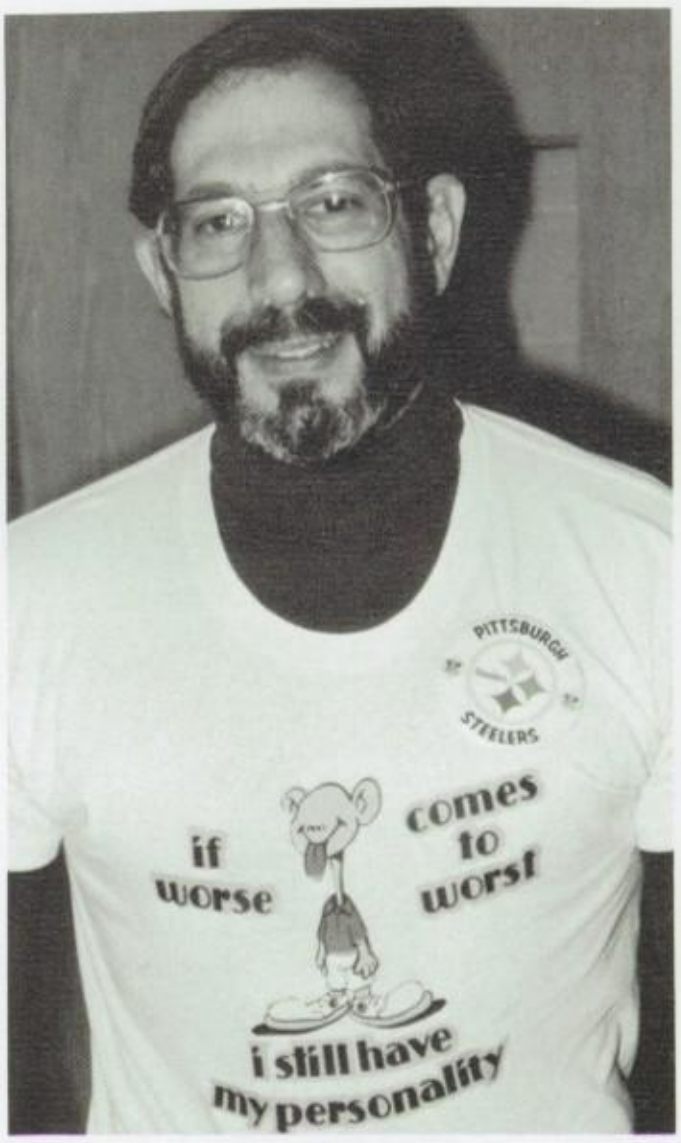


T-shirt day this year was quite different from any other t-shirt day in the past. Even teachers, and administration participated in the festivities. Judging was very difficult, but Freshman Sheila Scoville with her "Short People Don't Need Shrinks," won by a "small" margin. Many of the t-shirts could have won prizes as you can see from this page.

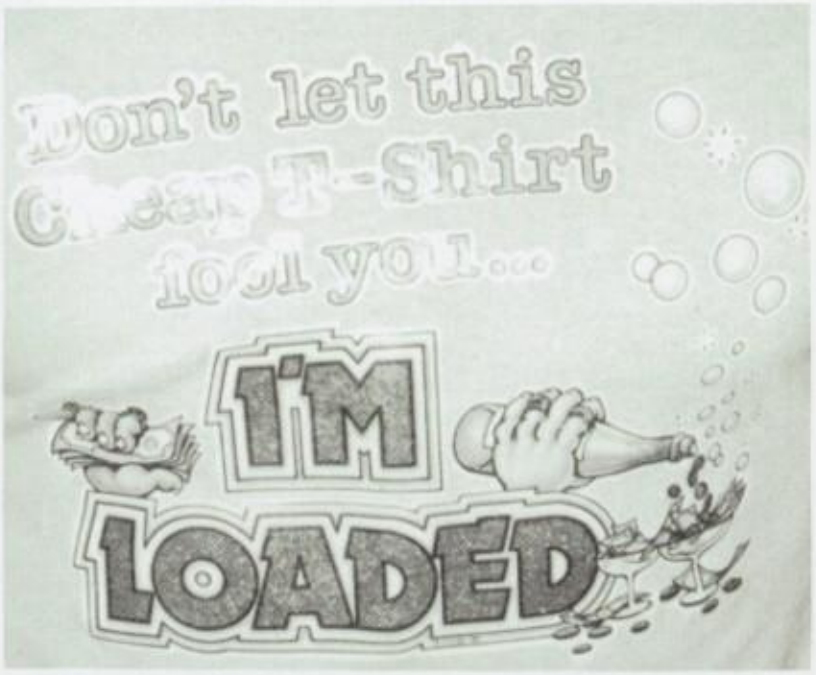


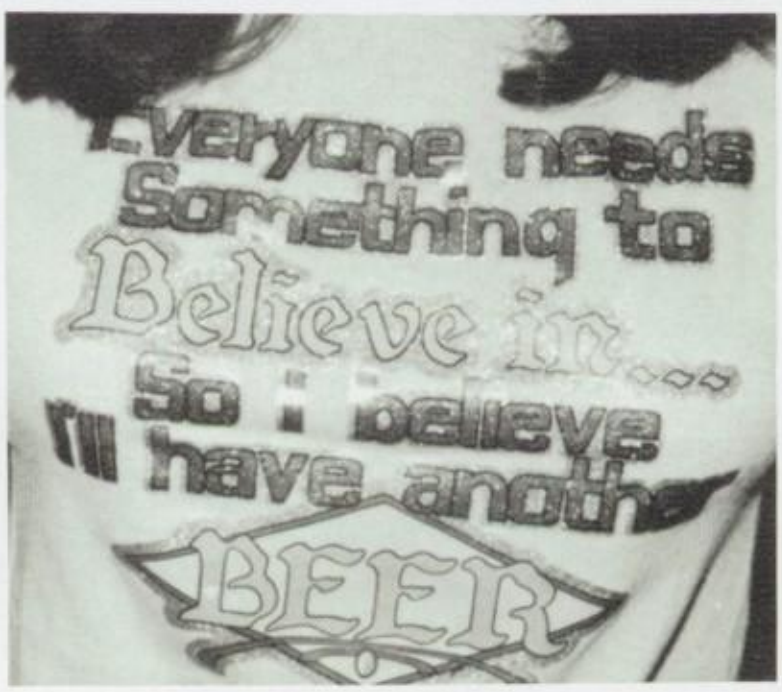
What do you think?





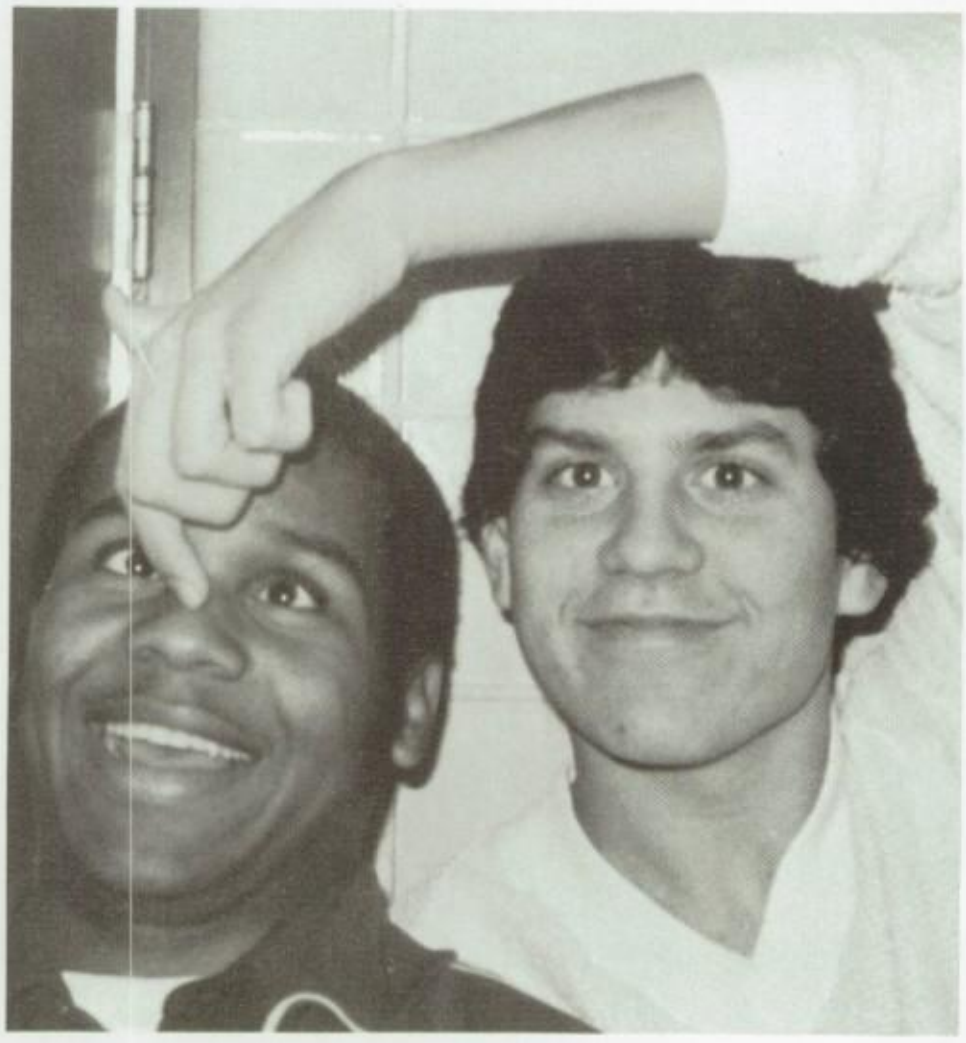
Mr. Joel Weinberg values his personality.





"Boy, if this doesn't say it all!"

MORON DAY



"Hey, man, I thought I was supposed to be in the cross-eyed section!" says Ed Schley and Sean Patterson

It is quite obvious what day this was . . . Bowsher has never seen so many morons. The halls were cluttered with queer costumes of every kind. Voted the best, by Student Council, was Theresa Kramer with her new style of Disco Skating.

"ELVIRA!!!" sings John Szkutnik

"Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome the hotest band in the land." (Ray Kawakami, Todd Frendt, Matt Swiergosz, Tim Tucker)

SPOOK DAY

Wendy Fish gets into the spirit of the week.

"You will be my next victim," says Tim Tucker

Thursday of Spirit Week was Bowsher's chance to get into the Halloween Spirit. Spook day had every goblin, witch, werewolf, and warrior you could imagine. This year's winner of the spook contest was Matt Swiergosz with his "American Werewolf in Bowsher" costume. Running close behind in second place was Tim Tucker as a medieval warrior.

HOMEROOM DECORATIONS

On Thursday of Spirit Week, the Homeroom Decoration contest was judged. This year's winner was Mrs. Frankel's Drama Class which put on a student written skit called, "The Rebel Feast". Mr. Schnell's class received second place for "Don't Hesitate to Whip Waite".

Can you identify this . . . uh . . . thing?

Now, THIS, is a rowdie rebel.

GO, REBELS!

The Homecoming Pep Rally was very unusual and fun. All of the students gathered in the gym to cheer the Rebels on to victory. To their surprise, the cheerleaders were . . . , guys! And to top that off, the football team was . . . , girls! It was a rowdie rally ending with the introductions of the Homecoming Queen Candidates. Florence Loo, Debbie McBrayer, Judy Skala, Stacey Steagal, and Tana Tam were the five finalists.

Oh, Baby, check out them legs."

Now, THOSE are cheerleaders!!!

1982 HOMECOMING FLOATS

The 1981 Homecoming Parade was filled with excitement, fun, and laughter. Bowsher's proud students spent long hours building their floats to the tune of defeating Waite (which the Rebel football team proceeded to do by the score of 24-6). Of course the seniors — Class of 82', with the theme, "Raid the Indians", won first prize for constructing the best float. The sophomores captured second place with their "Sailing to Victory". But all of the classes deserve credit for making this year's Homecoming festivities the greatest!!!

The seniors won first place this year with their theme "Raid the Indians".

Nice try Juniors!

Well Frosh — there's always next year!

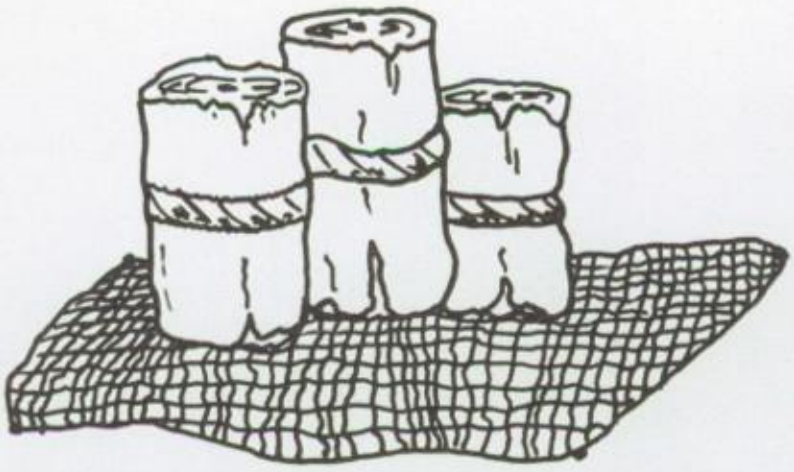
"SAILING"

"Awe, why'd you have to take my picture?" asks Sandee Mahler.

"Is it really $8.00?" asks Bill Greenwood.

The Homecoming Dance, "Sailing", probably could be regarded as one of Bowsher's best dances. The Student Council worked hard to decorate the cafeteria with nets, paper, stars, and lights to illustrate a sea atmosphere. Powell Studios took pictures of couples during the dance, and the queens were given engraved silver plates as a special honor. But the real attraction was the band from Columbus, Ohio called, "Sirrus". They played popular music with a $45,000 light and sound show.



"Todd, you're such a good dancer," says Cathy Cook.

Dinner was real good. (Gwen Osterhouck and Jim McDonald)

Search for Tomorrow

When a man has had enough of life
And all he knows is inner strife
And people die from being cold
Or left alone because their old
And when you try in vain to say
That you no longer know the way
And when your friends leave you behind
The loneliness is all you find
And you've learned is really wrong . . .

you stop smiling.

Young & Restless

And so the river moves,
Impersonal and slow
Today. let us go,
Afraid to own our loves,

To the place of ice and snow,
The brink where yesterday
Two children, held aglow,
Walked time away.

In a moment they were lost.
Ignorance and innocence
Pulled them under and tossed
Their souls up from sense.

Now, O stars, you hold
Their small souls, two Children cold and old
In lissome Spring the true.

And so the river moves
Impersonal and slow.
We watch. Let us go,
And hold close our loves.

Uh-Oh — Spaghettio's (Bruce Prauell)

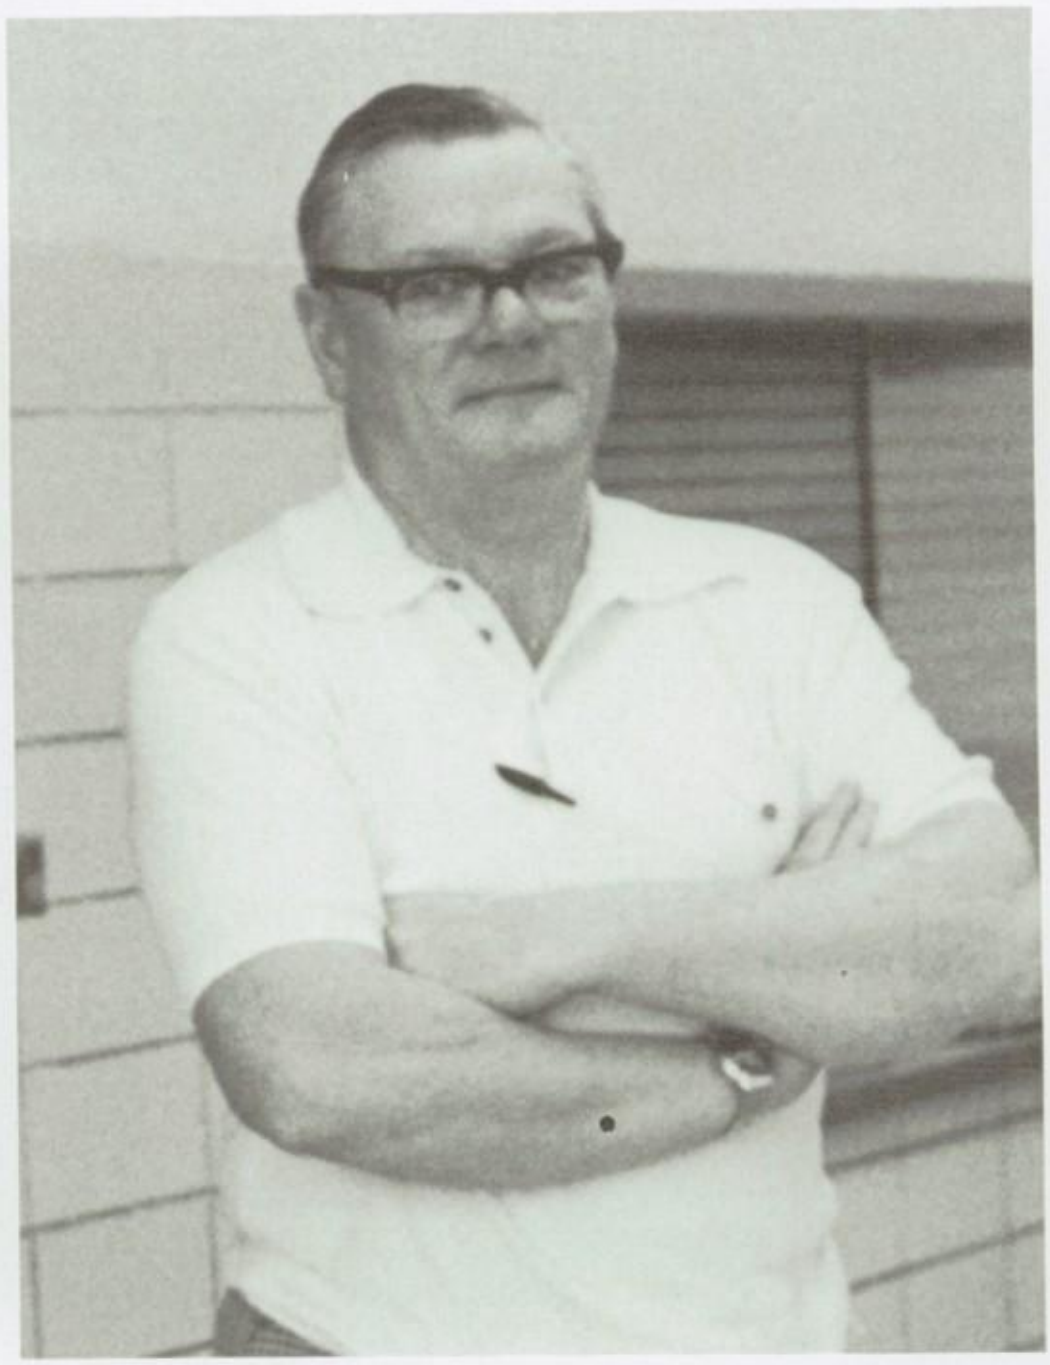
Freshman are always moving but never getting anywhere.

Freshman are lost in the crowd.

Freshman are getting smaller every year.

Stacy Caumartin is waiting for her prince charming.

School isn't really all that bad. (Beth Condon)



Freshman are always trouble.

Bowshers Hope

Oh East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet,
Till Earth and Sky stand presently at God's great Judgment Seat;
But there is neither East nor West, Border, nor Breed, nor Birth,
When two strong men stand face to face, though they come from the ends of the earth.

HOME OF THE... BOWSHER Rebels
Rebel Pride

As the World Turns

Still sits the schoolhoue by the road,
A ragged beggar sleeping;
Around it still the sumachs grow,
And blackberry-vines are creeping.

Within, the master's desk is seen,
Deep scarred by raps official;
The warping floor, the battered seats,
The jackknife's carved initial;

The charcoal frescoes on its wall;
Its door's worn sill, betraying
The feet that, creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing!

Long years ago a winter sun
Shone over it at setting;
Lit up its western windowpanes,
And low eaves' icy fretting.

Kneeling: Amy Sobczak. (Row 1): Denise Hornyak, Pam Haugh, Mel Lager, Cari Kegg, Shelley Bremer, Kim Bigelow, Rae Ann Perrin. (Row 2): Miss Papps, Robin Schroeder, Sheri Royce, Marty Birkenkamp, Ellen Roth, Laurie Hart, Tim Tucker, Collen Mitro. (Row 3): Mark Austin, Tami Huepenbecker, Bob McCarren, Ray Kawakami, Patty Kennelly, Tony Tucker, Matt Swiergosz. Not pictured: Rick Hill, Lisa Neves, Karl White.

Tami Huepenbecker just loves the smell of rubber cement.

Sophisticated Mark Heider slyly smiles at the APOGEE photographer.

Even though cropping pictures is a tedious job, Kim Bigelow does it with a smile.

The Apogee staff has the task of creating, organizing and distributing a student publication they can be proud of — the school yearbook. The advisor, Miss Elizabeth Papps, acts as the proverbial shepherd watching over the flock. Lisa Neves and Amy Sobczak are co-editors this year.

As could be expected, we, the Apogee staff ran into the trials and tribulations that seem to occur every year. Eight members of the staff now have ulcers, two suffered serious nervous breakdowns and one committed suicide by smothering himself in unfinished copy.

Pam Haugh says "Look mom, they put me in the yearbook."

Robyn, Sherri, and Mel show the lighter side of working on APOGEE.

Karl White is finally caught working.

REBELLION

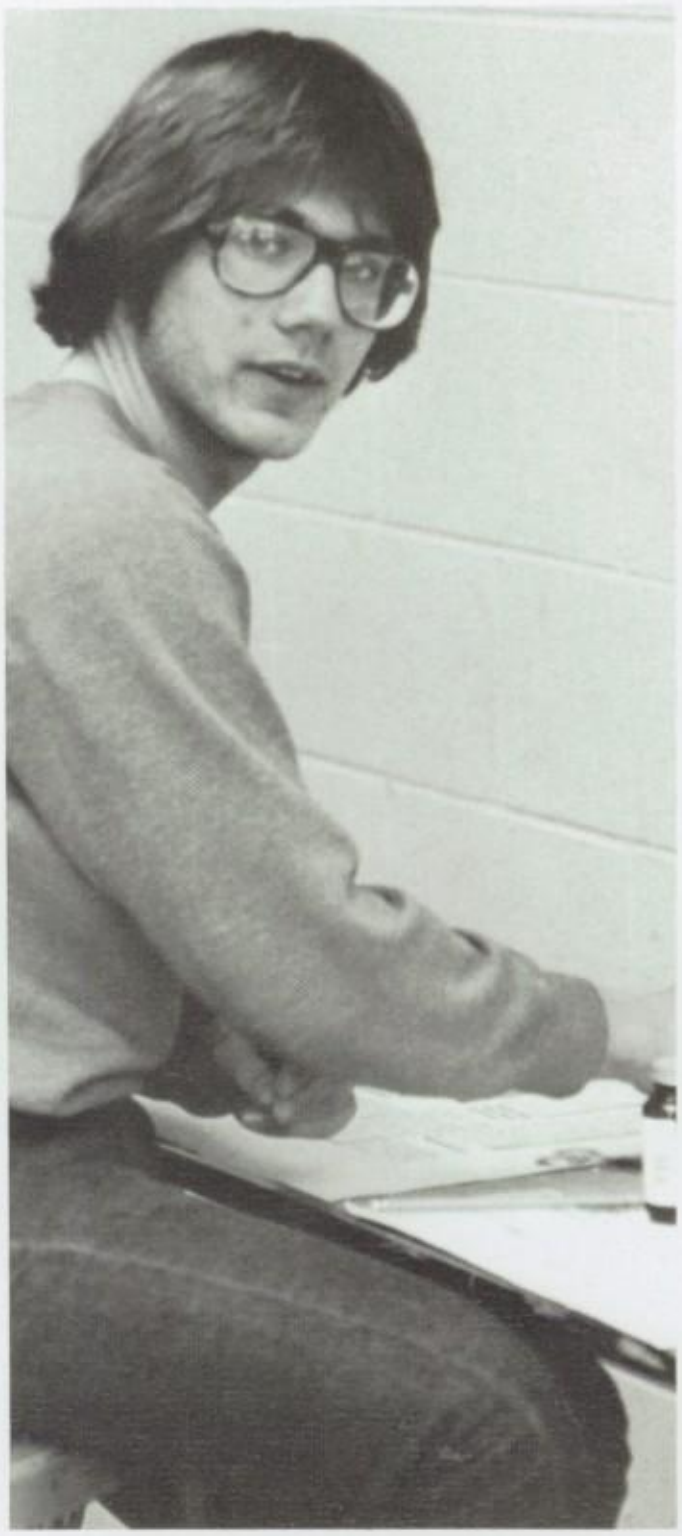
"Roving Rebel" Ray Kawakami

Dawn Falkenburg contemplates her next article.

The Rebellion, Bowsher's school newspaper, is advised by Miss Patricia Osborn. The staff usually creates and publishes an average of five to six issues per year. Strange sounds can be heard from Room 323 (just before deadline) of anguish, frustration, torture and pain. But true to the code of journalism, the deadline is met and the Bowsher students can enjoy an outstanding school paper.

Miss Patricia Osborn "stops the presses" to give us a smile.



"Don't take my picture," says Joe Hutchinson.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council consists of the elected representatives of the student body. The members are concerned in promoting student activities and school spirit. They plan the pep rallies, dances and help determine how the money, raised in various sales, is to be used.

Mrs. Diane Cooper serves as the advisor. The officers are: Matt Swiergosz, president; Lil Rayner, vice-president; Sheryl Davis, secretary; Kris Hill, secretary; Lisa Corrello, treasurer; Tim Tucker, sergeant-at-arms.

The National Honor Society, under the guidance of Mr. Joseph Hermiller and Mrs. Elaine Leech, recognizes the qualities of character, leadership, service and scholarship in the junior and senior years. The group is also involved in service at school activities such as Open House and Commencement. To be accepted into the National Honor Society one must have a cummulative average of 3.5 as a junior and a 3.4 standing as a senior. The canidates are also approved by the faculty.

(Kneeling): Sue Sutor, Florence Loo, John Barnes, Laurie Lyle. (Row 1): Tana Tam, Lydia Ensign, Ken Sutter, Marian Read, Amy Sobczak, Carol Baum, Cathy Cox, Mr. Hermiller. (Row 2): Jenny Gigler, Dave Price, Derek Hagemeyer, Ken Przybylski, Valerie Whitehead, Cindy Clear, Jeff Koenigseker, Dave Powell. (Row 3): Gerry Fong, Claudia Hatton, Bob McCarren, Carl Perkins, Jack Sloan, Shelly Surerus, Eugene Young, Terry Miller.

FRENCH

During the year, Bowsher's French Club sells pettite Napoleans which melt in the mouth. They also participate in the Foreign Language Festival. The club officers are Sterling Grey, Holly Cunningham, Daphne Bognar, Annette Clark, and Lisa Plath.

In order to become a member of the German Club, inductees must endure a week of bizarre activities such as wearing a large name tag and rolling up pant legs. During the year the club sells gummy bears and participates in the Foreign Language Festival at Bowsher. The officers are Amy Thomson, Debbie Sutor, Cindy Ingersoll, Katie Ingersoll, Pam Haugh and Mike Lowry.

SPANISH

Spanish students interested in acquiring extra curricular skills in the Spanish language comprise the Spanish Club. Their advisor is Mrs. Marilyn Stevens.

Club activities include picnics, Spanish cooking classes, a Christmas party and participating in the Foreign Language Festivals at Bowsher and the University of Toledo. The officers are: President: Mel Lager, Vice-Presidents: Deepak Chari, Ann Zimmerman and Alan Fuller.

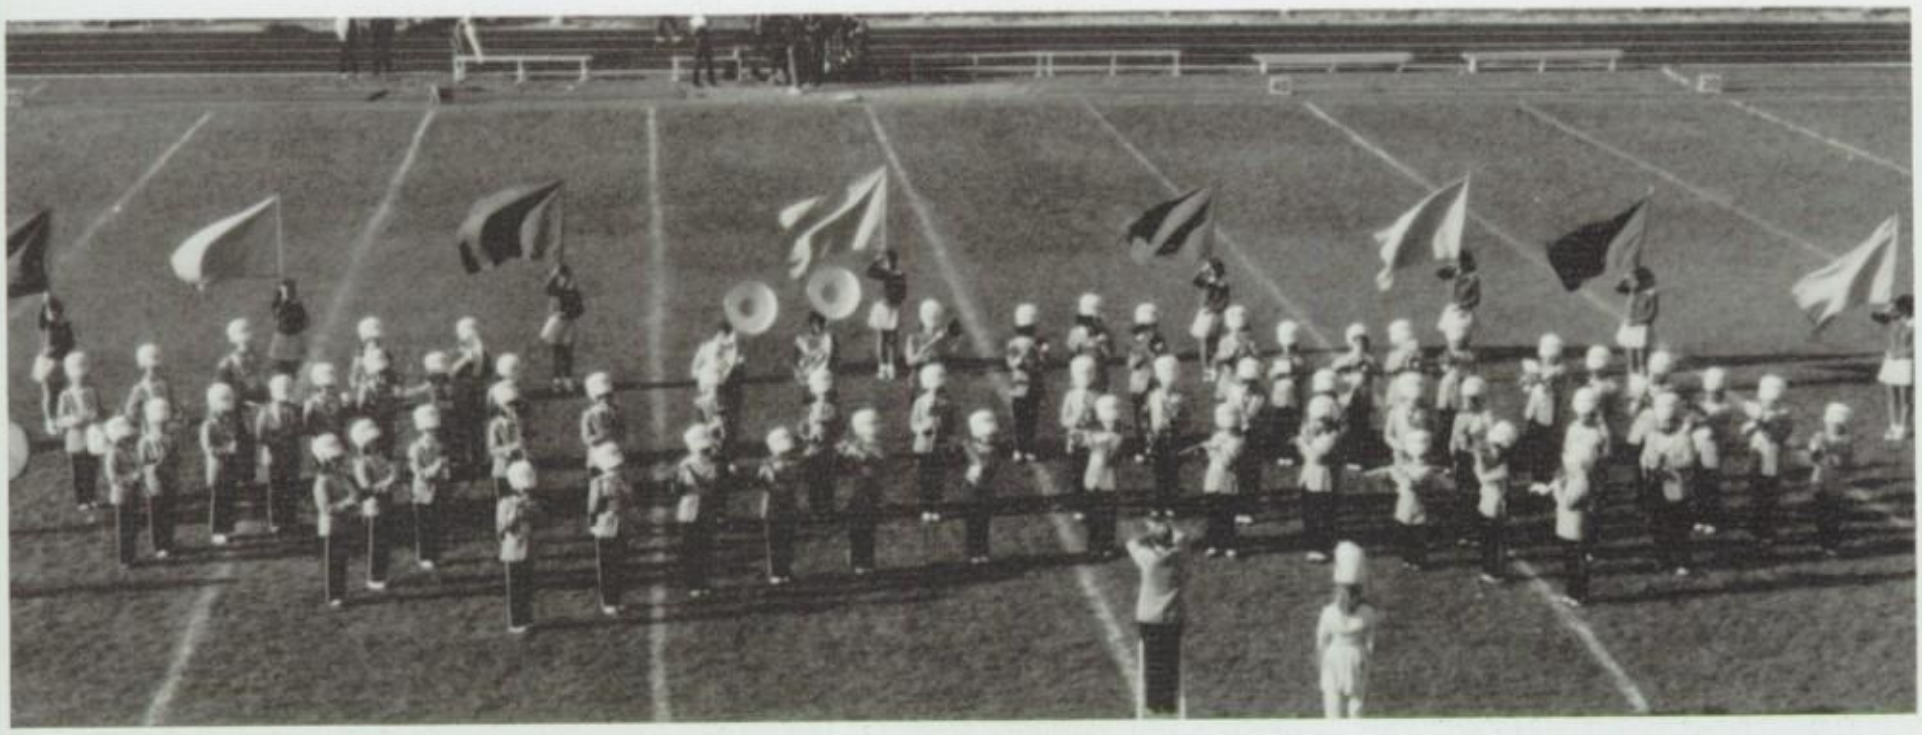
The Marching Band stirs up the 'ole school spirit by performing during the halftime of our football games. Playing an instrument while marching is very difficult and can be extremely dangerous if chewing gum at the same time.

Lil Rayner, Drum Majorette



The band will do anything to get into the yearbook.

The marching Rebels perform at halftime.

"Why didn't I learn how to play the trumpet?" says Mark Cairl

The 104 Fox helps Lil direct the band.

MAJORETTES

Bowsher's majorettes provide colorful and enjoyable routines during the halftime break at football games. The girls are chosen each year after a long series of demanding tryouts. Mrs. Denise Adams Onyia serves as the advisor.

Guiding Light

The goal of intellectual man
Striving to do what he can
To bring down out of uncreated light
Illumination to our night

Is not possission of the fire
Annihilation of his own desire
To the source a secret soaring
And all his self outpouring

Nor is it an imageless place
Wherein there is no human face
Nor laws, nor hierarchies, nor dooms
And only the cold weight of the tomb

But it is human love, love
Concrete, specific, in a natural move
Gathering goodness, it is free
In the blood as in the mind's harmony,

It is love discoverable here
Difficult, dangerous, pure, clear,
The truth of the positive hour
Composing all of human power.

Faculty

ADMINISTRATION

James Foltz
Principal

Mr. James H. Foltz, the principal, feels the responsibility of an executive position more than anyone else in the school. He oversees all activities and makes decisions regarding the trials and tribulations that emerge throughout the year. Because of the leadership and judgement skills necessary for this demanding job one must have a prerequisite of coaching the Cleveland Browns or a maximum security institution.

Edmund Boblitt
Activities Director

Mr. Edmund Boblitt is Bowsher's principal of activities. He's in charge of all extracurricular events, including fund raising, athletic and presentations. He also authorizes requisitions for maintenance and repairs.

James Ray
Instruction Director

Mr. Jim Ray is Bowsher's assistant principal in charge of curriculum. During the year Mr. Ray updates the course selection sheet as well as the master schedule.

Milon Sawyers
Student Affairs

Mr. Milon Sawyers serves as assistant principal in charge of student affairs. Mr. Sawyer checks attendance, truancy and tardiness, not to mention the cafeteria and parking lot.

COUNSELORS

Marie Bush

Marlene Davison

Jean Geis

James Norris

"I'm the only male counselor at Bowsher." (James Norris)

"Look, your 2nd hour has been changed from Wood I to Home Economics II. (Marie Bush)

Counselors aid students in decisions involving scheduling, careers, and college choices. In addition each counselor has a designated area of concentration. Mr. Jim Norris and Mrs. Jean Geis arrange for college representatives to visit Bowsher and they also organize the annual college night. Mrs. Marie Bush helps counsel students who are limited in their English speaking ability, foreign exchange students and students involved in special education. Mrs. Marlene Davison is in charge of all testing involving the A.C.T.: P.S.A.T.: and the Advanced Placement tests.

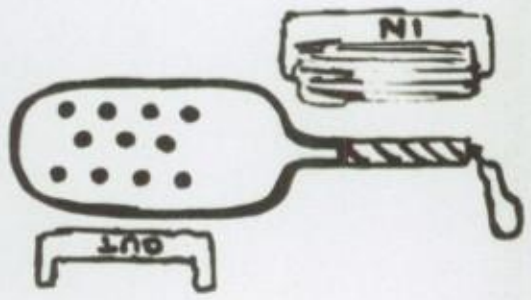
DEANS

Jean Chamberlain

Gary Cole

Mrs. Chamberlain on the march.

The deans at Bowsher deal with enforcing the rules regarding discipline, attendance, tardiness and referrals. Mr. Gary Cole is Dean of Boys and Mrs. Jean Chamberlain serves as Dean of Girls.



NURSES

Helen Johnson

Lola Sheline

Bowsher has two qualified nurses, Mrs. Lola Sheline and Mrs. Johnson, who perform many duties besides administering first aid. At the beginning of the year they check all health cards and notify teachers who have students with physical disabilities or health problems. The Red Cross bloodmobile is sponsored by them, and Mrs. Sheline and Mrs. Johnson schedule donors and arrange for Red Cross workers to come to Bowsher for that day.

The English Department at Bowsher provides the students with skills in grammar, composition, and literature. In addition to the required curriculum, Bowsher has several elective courses such as Coping, and Changing Attitudes, Advanced Placement for seniors and a journalism class which publishes the Rebellion, the school paper. The special electives along with the regular English program attempts to provide an interesting experience for each high school student.

Bowsher has four foreign languages in its curriculum. They are French, Latin, German and Spanish. The students from these classes have always participated in the Foreign Language Day sponsored by the University of Toledo. This enables the students to compete with others in their knowledge of the languages studied. In addition Bowsher holds a Foreign Language Festival for parents, teachers and students. At this festival programs are presented to show the various cultures that these languages express.

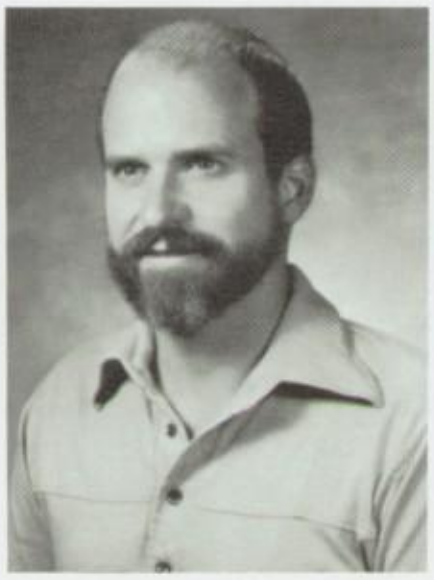
"I just love giving out grades" (Carolyn Goforth)

The Art Department is continuously entering portfolios and art work into competition. The Scholastic Art competition is for students in local districts. All art work that wins is sent to New York and entered in national competition. In some cases students have won up to a four years scholarship. In March, the art department, along with other departments, presents Winterfest, which allows students to express themselves in art, languages, literature, music, drama, science.

Mrs. Sahley has a quick 5 minute break between classes.

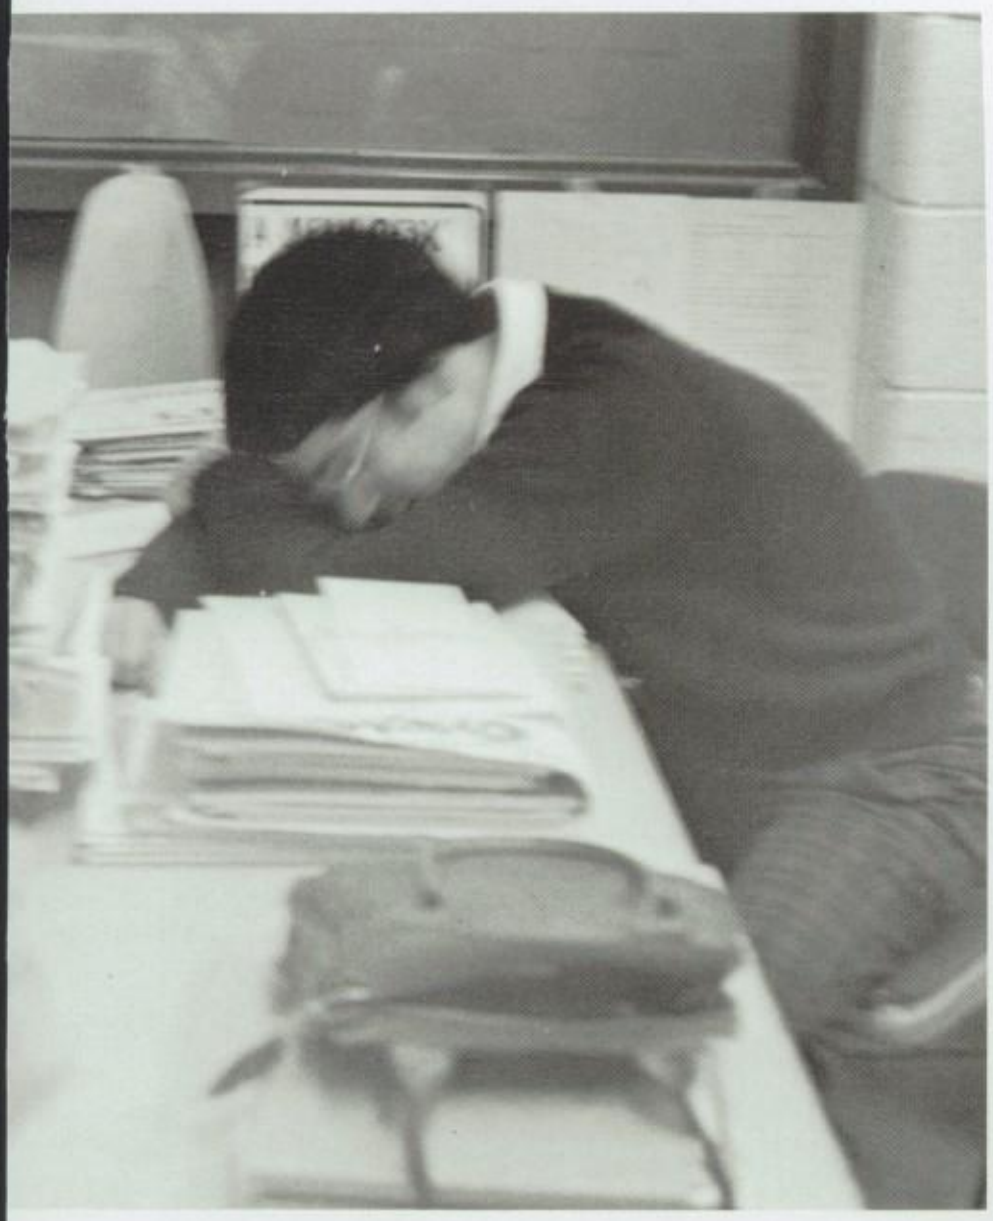
MUSIC



Ronald Lang

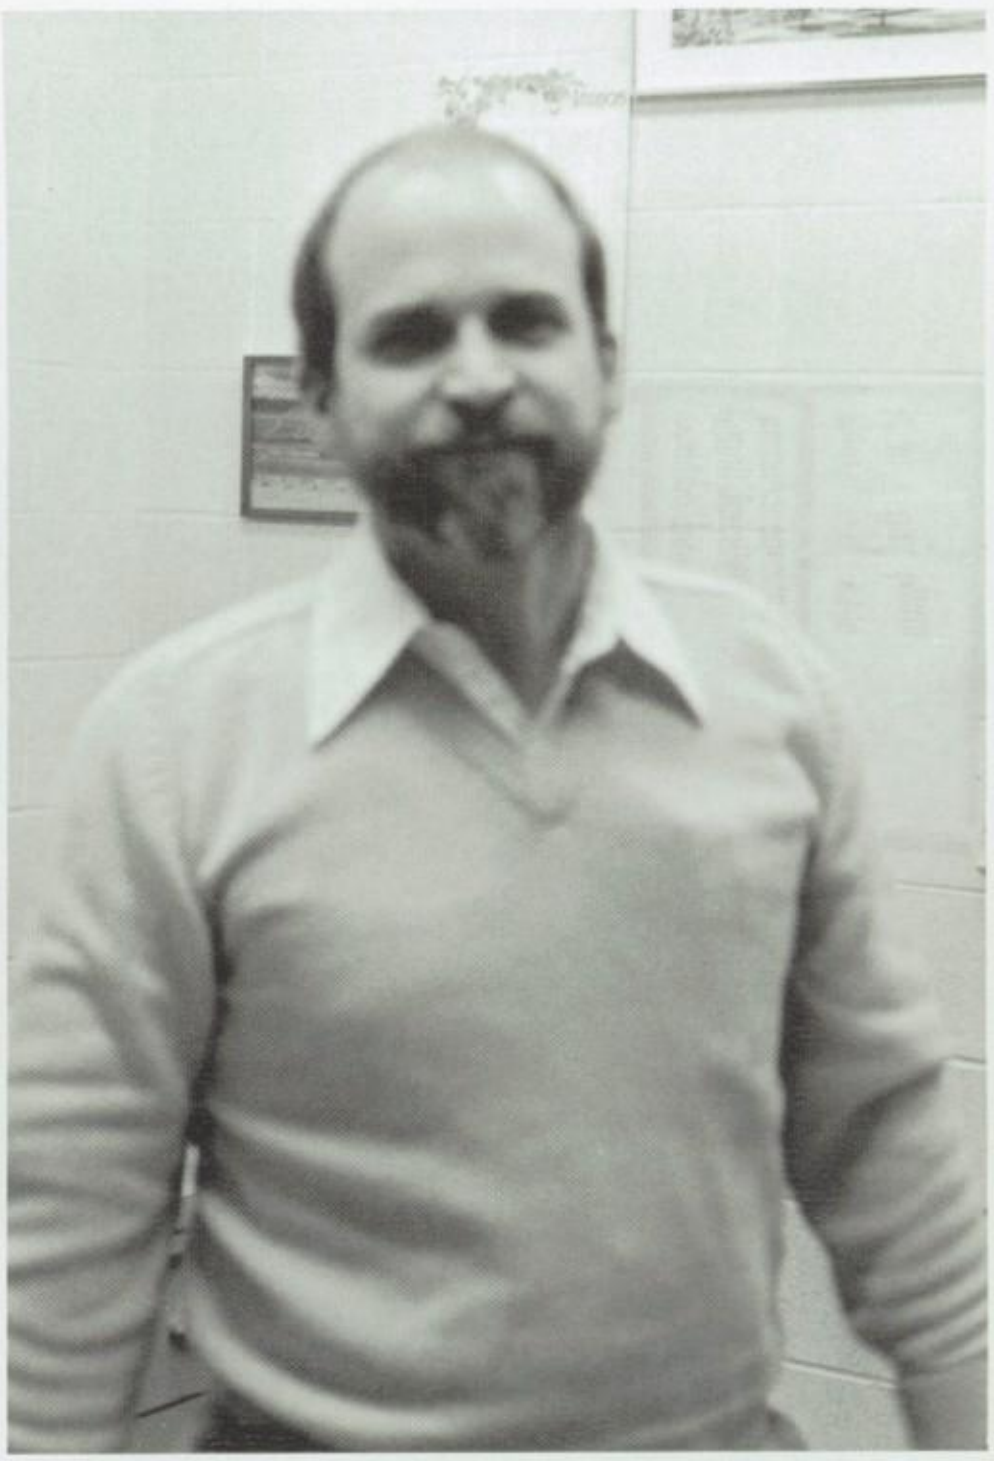
Ben Smar

Marcella Mackey



Mr. Smar takes 20 Minutes to rest during class time.

There are nine major performing groups in Bowsher's Music Department. The purpose of the course of study is to develop skills and attitudes in the students so that they may enjoy music throughout life. This is done by class instruction and by performances in the school and community. The orchestra and ensemble have performed at the Toledo Museum of Art, and every year the orchestra and ensemble combine to give a Christmas concert for the Bowsher community.



Mr. Lang leaves to direct the "Animal Band."

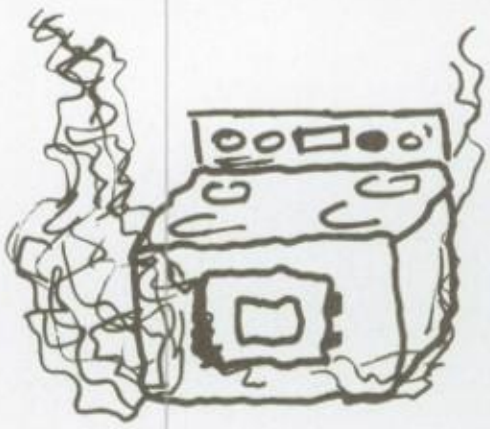
HOME ECONOMICS

Karen Bucher

Brunetta O'Neill

Pam Roberts

In the Home Economic courses at Bowsher there are six main areas. They are nutrition, textiles, home furnishings, child development, family life, management and consumer economics. At Christmas the students make gingerbread houses and set them in the school hall display window; in the spring the home economics classes have a nursery school which is maintained by the home economic students.



INDUSTRIAL ARTS

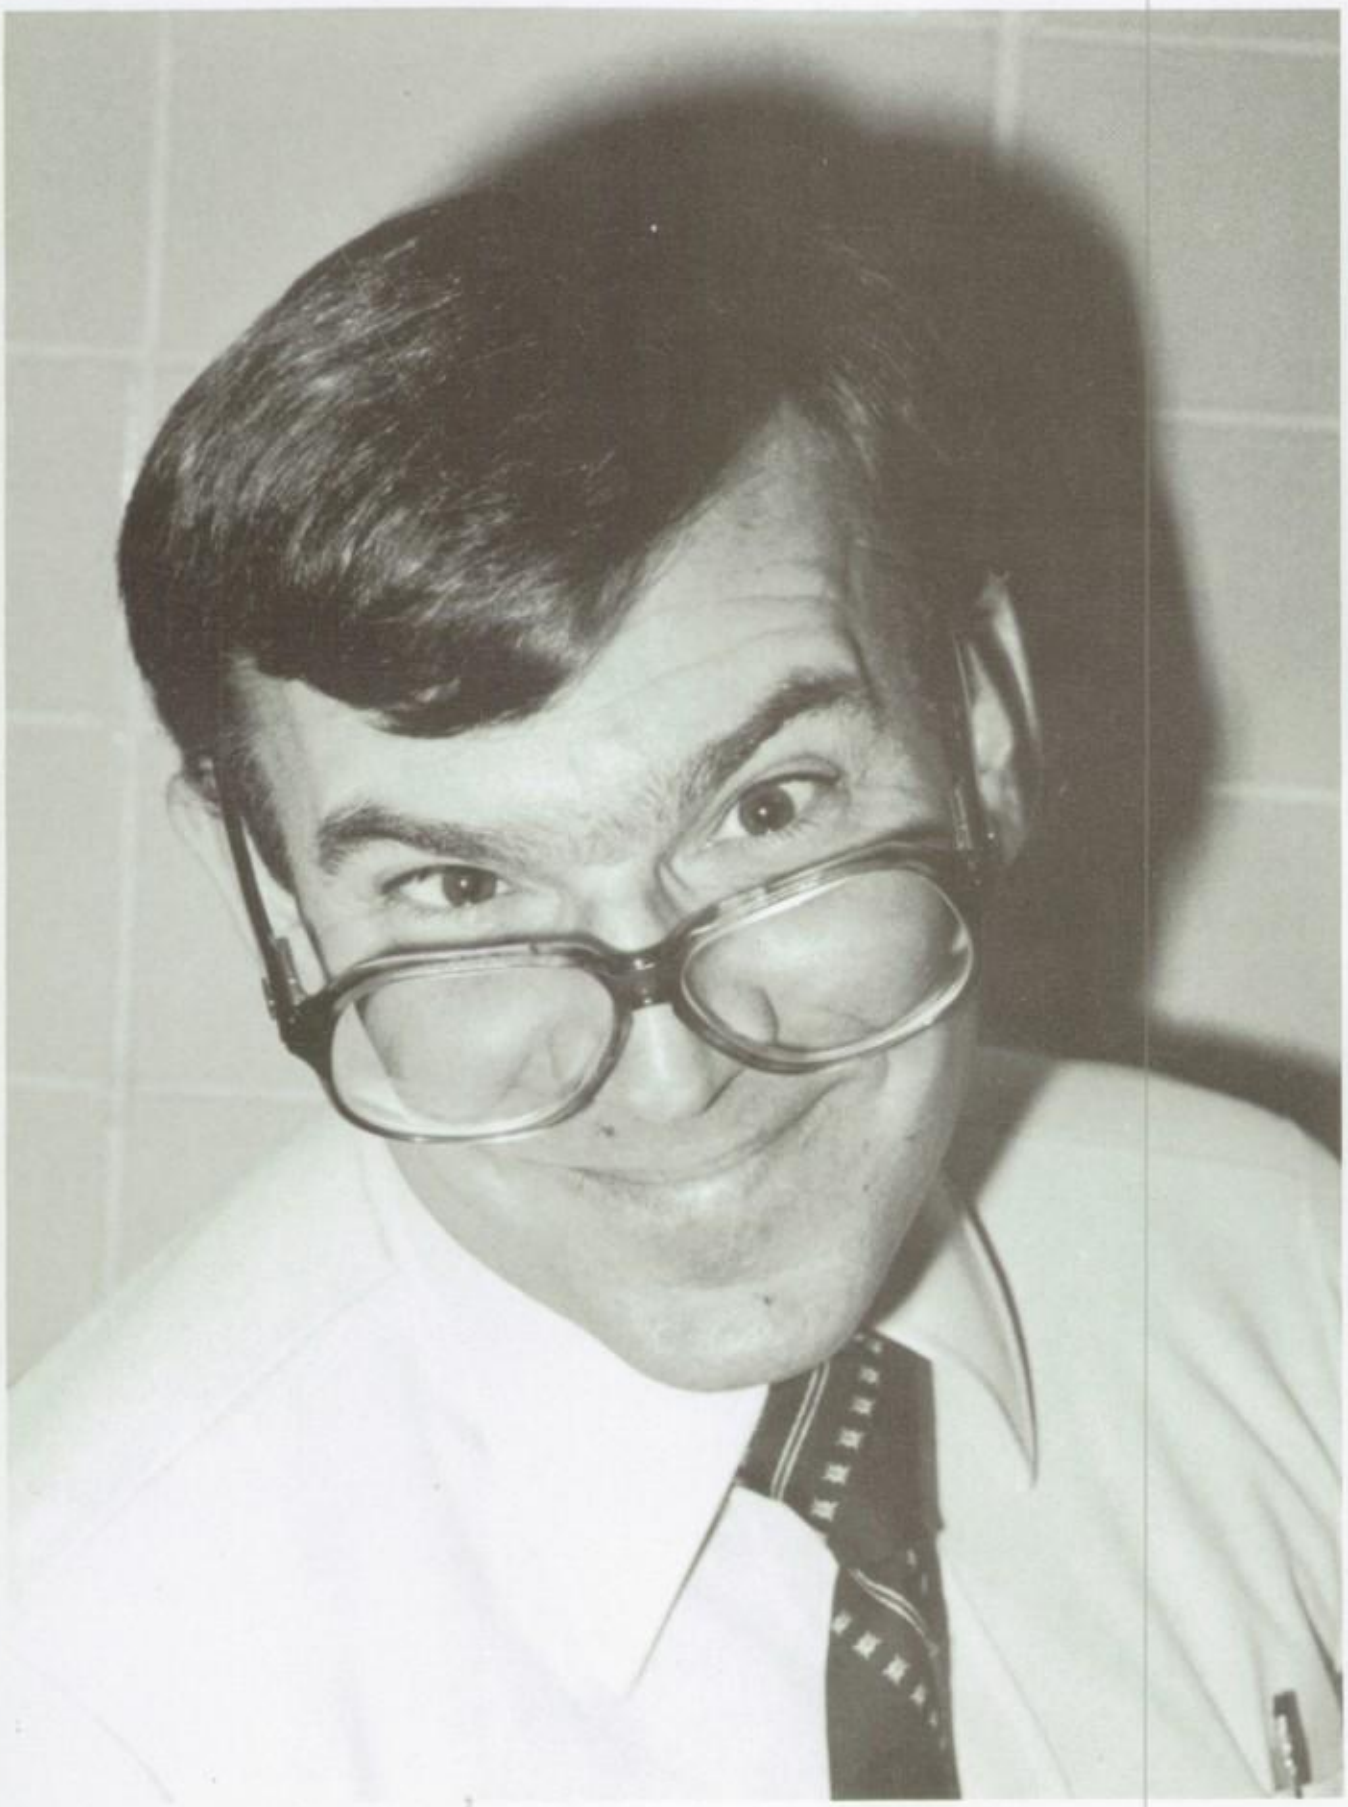
Fadia Hallick



My eyes can't believe it! (Terry Schnell)

In the Business Department there are three courses that provide extensive instruction for the business world. They are DECA, COE, and IOE. DECA gives on the job training to students interested in retail, and wholsale occupations. IOE is a course for juniors and seniors who want job experience in the business field while COE is a course for seniors who want to receive on the job training. Members of these classes participate in competition for offices at the city and state level.

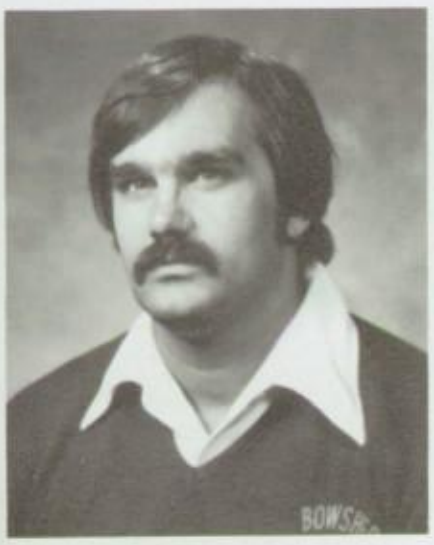
Physical education is a mandatory class for all freshmen and sophomores. The freshman class is geared towards team work in areas such as volleyball, softball and speedball. The members of the sophomore class participate in individual sports such as track and archery.

HEALTH

Dave Kregel



Burton Rogers

There's always a kid that doesn't go before we leave. (Burt Rogers)

This year Bowsher began a new health class. Instead of teaching it to freshmen, it is now taught to sophomores. The course itself is more personally related. Whereas before it concentrated on the physiological body, the new course deals with such topics as self-care, aging, and death.

CAREER EDUCATION

Careers is a class designed to give the students at Bowsher a view of their career and educational choices. Two major survey tests given in careers class are the G.A.T.B. and O.U.I.S. These tests are designed to show the students the job areas in which they are most suited. In order to help the students more fully understand various careers, two reports are required during the year. In one the student chooses a career field and explains why he would like this field; in the other the student reports on a successful business or a famous person.

Bowsher's Media Department consists of three areas: audio-visual, the production room, and the library. Mr. Ken Dickson is in charge of all audio-visual equipment such as television sets, record players and tape recorders. In the production room students can laminate, copy, make slides, and record tapes and records. A new addition to the production room is the video machine this year. In February the library with the National Honor Society gives a three screen slide presentation to the area junior high schools.

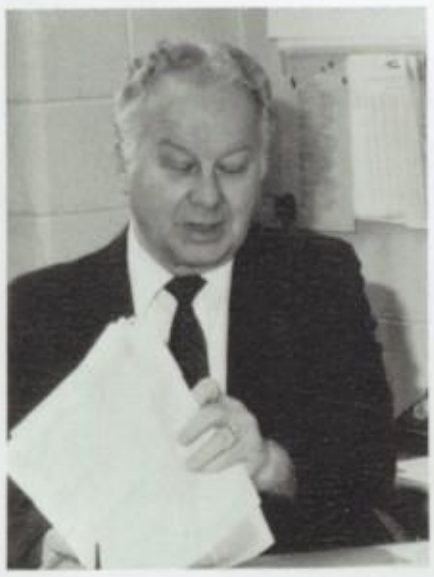
MR. JAMES H. FOLTZ
THANK-YOU FOR 9 GREAT YEARS!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Bowsher community, especially the staff and students, for making my years at Bowsher a very happy and rewarding experience. May the years ahead bring good health and happiness to each of you.

I certainly hope that my successor experiences the same satisfaction and success that I have had as Principal at Bowsher.

James H. Foltz



The Apogee along with the student body and the faculty wishes the best to Mr. James Foltz who retired on February 26, 1982.

Mr. Foltz believes that athletics, music, art, and academic standards are excellent at Bowsher High School. To see students improve and win awards was always a proud and enjoyable feeling for Mr. Foltz.

"I am leaving Bowsher at a peak in my life," said Mr. Foltz, and when asked what his most memorable moment was in his career, he answered that the final surprise pep rally in his honor was an event that he will never forget.

Thank you, Mr. Foltz for nine great years!

Another World

I sit and wait upon my soul to-night,
And watch the sea and sky,
The silent moon's far-reaching light
That glorifies the night.

Now would some keen, hard-headed son of trade
Laugh loud to me, and say,
"Tell me of what stuff a soul is made.
The thing's no good in trade."

And proud philosophers would hard contend
To tell me all they know,
Forgetting that the lights of heaven blend
And shine, while they contend.

Notes From The Editors

Being a member of the E.L. Bowsher Apogee Staff requires a lot of work and dedication. We often find ourselves at school till 10:00 at night slaving over a layout, but those days are also fun-filled. We manage to have a good time while we work.

We as members of the Apogee Staff, usually become closer to one another than students in other classes do. Since we are all striving towards the common goal of making a stupendous yearbook, we learn to work together and a bond is formed between us.

Oh yes, it is true that being on the Apogee Staff is time consuming and hard work, but then again, all worthwhile things usually are.

A Special Thanks To
Amy & Lisa

We would like to express our deepest gratitude and admiration to Miss Elizabeth Papps for her undying patience even when we pushed her beyond her limits with our late night deadlines, dancing, loud music, crazy jokes and green pepper pizzas. Without her help, expertise and encouragement, we would never have been able to accomplish all that we have. You are the best Advisor any staff could have. Thanx Again!

Those who were not on the staff but deserve a special thanks are: Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Neves, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sobczak, Mr. Doug Bynum (for his constant help and understanding), Mr. Ed Boblitt, Mr. James Foltz (whom we will never forget), Ms. Patricia Osborn, Mrs. Katherine Mallory (who kept our confusing financial records), Mr. Edwin Teal for pictures, Hunter Publishing Company, Mr. Douglas Leonard for last minute picture developing and to ABC, CBS and NBC.

An extra special thanks goes to Mr. Donald Fader (Do-Mar) for his photography and developing when we desperately needed it.

"Educated men are as much superior to uneducated men as the living are to the dead"

–Aristotle

So live a little.

OWENS-ILLINOIS

A Toledo based, multinational, four billion-dollar manufacturer of packaging materials in glass, plastic, paper and metal as well as a dynamic variety of non-packaging items for diversified markets, takes this opportunity to express support for education and for the young men and women who will make tomorrow just a little bit better than today.

He could be learning the business.

Kids have energy and brains to burn. They get to an age when they're beyond toys and games. They get caught up in real things, when someone gives them a chance.

That's what Junior Achievement is all about. Mini-companies formed, run and staffed by kids. Kids who dream up products and product applications the world can really use.

LOF is always looking forward. To the tomorrows that will require new products and new people to make and market them.
